LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A Denver publisher deplored international repercussions of the Little Rock school integration crisis during an address at an Arkansas Pressmen convention banquet last night, and 26 persons walked out as he spoke.

Palmer Hoyt, publisher and editor of the Denver Post, made no comment on the silent protests. Not even when Keith Tudor of Arkadelphia, a vice president of the association, left the publisher's own table.

The 225 persons who remained sat silent as Hoyt termed the Little Rock crisis one of three great dangers to the American way of life.

Cites Need of Major 10 Year Missile Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—Nelson A. Rockefeller said today a 10-year sustained, major effort is needed to put the United States ahead of the Russians in the missile-satellite field.

This was his reply to a question from Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) as to how long it will take to catch up with and overtake the Soviets.

Rockefeller testified before the Senate Preparedness subcommittee headed by Johnson.

At one point in an exchange with Rockefeller, Johnson said he understood President Eisenhower's new budget, which is to be given to Congress Monday, had cut Air Force requests for missile funds by 42 per cent. Johnson also said little attention had been paid to requests by other services for missile money.

But later Johnson announced to the subcommittee that he had erred. He said the cuts he was talking about were in the current budget for the fiscal year ending June 30, not in the new budget which will be for the 12 months beginning July 1.

Johnson did not use any dollar figures. Eisenhower said in his State of the Union message yesterday that he would recommend increased spending on missiles.

In the main, Rockefeller's testimony was an elaboration on the report last weekend by a special study group—headed by Rockefeller—which recommended an overhauling of the defense setup and an increase of about three billion dollars a year in defense spending.

Rockefeller said it was the unanimous opinion of some 50 national leaders consulted in the study that there must be a drastic overhaul of defense machinery and goals to assure survival.

Johnson said that three months after the launching of the Russian Sputnik, the Defense Department is still overruling the recommendations of the experts.

"A cat gets its eyes open in 10 days," Johnson remarked.

Johnson said the testimony the subcommittee has heard from military experts all adds up to one thing—their recommendations for funds have not been granted.

Arkansas Navy Unit Forms at L. R.

Chief Leo W. Wesson of the Texarkana Navy Recruiting Office announced today that a special Navy Recruit Company from Arkansas, to be called the "Raskinck" Company, will be formed at Little Rock on Jan. 14, 1958. The men in the company will train together at the Navy Recruiting Center, San Diego, Calif.

The first 75 Arkansas men to qualify for enlistment in the Navy in 1958 will form the company. The "Raskinck" Company will be sworn in as a unit in Little Rock on Jan. 14 and then will be flown to San Diego for nine weeks' recruit training. A Chief Petty Officer from Arkansas will lead the company in training.

Bus Involved in Wreck, No Injuries

A school bus and an auto collided yesterday afternoon, north on Highway 29 near Hope city limits but nobody was injured.

The bus, driven by Frank Newberry was making a left turn and collided with an auto driven by Ralph Smith. State Police Officer Guy Downing said there were heavy property damages but none of the children on the bus were injured. A charge of failure to yield was filed against the bus driver.

Bombs Occasionally Taken Over Canada

OTTAWA, Ont. (AP)—United States planes occasionally carry atomic or hydrogen bombs over Canadian territory with this country's written permission, the Canadian Press said it had learned today on high authority.

For each such flight, the U. S. government presents a formal request to Canada and permission in each case must be signed by a Cabinet minister, the news service said.

The practice has been going on for a number of years, the service said, and bombs are in transit to American bases overseas.

Sen. Fulbright Fears Cut in Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.) said today President Eisenhower will have to use all the power at his command to prevent Congress from slashing foreign economic aid "below the danger point."

Fulbright and Senators H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.), Humphrey (D-Minn.) and Sparkman (D-Ala.) agreed with Eisenhower that it would be "reckless folly" to develop and produce these weapons "and expand our economic aid program abroad at the same time."

Eisenhower is expected to propose about $3,900,000 in military and economic aid for the fiscal year starting next July 1.

He told Congress in his State of the Union message that the Communist world is mounting a massive economic offensive against the free world, including the uncommitted and underdeveloped nations.

Fulbright said, "it will be extremely difficult to get Congress and the country to follow the President's recommendations for economic loans and an extension of the reciprocal trade program."

Woman Kills Three Children and Self

RENO, Nev. (AP)—"We are all dead," read a note left by a wealthy insurance executive's estranged wife.

Her bullet-riddled body and those of the couple's three children were found side by side yesterday on a bedroom floor of their $50,000 home.

Victims of what police described as child killing and suicide were Mrs. D. Yvonne Cavanaugh, 34, recently released from a mental hospital, and her children, Anthony, 9, Carol, 8, and Kevin, 4.

Robert Cavanaugh, who had been separated from his wife more than six months, was in Chicago when the shootings occurred—apparently after the two older children returned from school Wednesday. Cavanaugh is secretary of the Illinois Commercial Men's Assn. of Chicago.

Asst. Dist. Atty. William Raggle told of blood-spattered and bullet-riddled walls, indicating that Mrs. Cavanaugh may have chased and shot the children in various rooms before bringing them downstairs to lay them in a row on a blanket in her lavish bedroom.

The children's bodies were riddled by bullets from a .25-caliber automatic found beside their mother.

Little Change in Dept. Store Sales

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Department store sales in the Eighth Federal Reserve District were unchanged last week in comparison with the corresponding week a year earlier.

The St. Louis Federal Reserve Bank said Memphis showed a gain of 9 per cent and Little Rock a gain of 12 per cent, but sales dipped 3 per cent in Louisville and dropped 22 per cent in seven smaller district cities combined.

In St. Louis, sales were unchanged from a year earlier.

District sales for the four weeks ending Jan. 4 were 4 per cent greater than for the same period a year earlier.

Louisiana Man Dies From Injuries

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP)—A Louisiana man died in a hospital here today from injuries received when the automobile he was driving careened off U. S. Highway 197 one mile south of nearby Hampton and overturned yesterday afternoon.

State Trooper Paul Hamilton said the victim was James Lamar Anderson, 21, of Quitman, La.

Two passengers, William Griffin and Richard Thibault, both 18, also were injured and taken to the hospital. Anderson lost control of the car and was thrown from the vehicle, Hamilton said.

NICE TRICK, IF YOU CAN DO IT—A close shave—too close results in Harvey Richmond, left, and Philip Swain, 13, getting all lathered up as their first barbering customer blows his top. The boys were at the National Schoolboys' Exhibition in London, England, and were doing fine at the delicate job of shaving a balloon until Philip nicked it with the razor.

Pleads for President to Slow Down

WASHINGTON (UP)—Mr. President, please slow down another five miles an hour—at least, when you're driving through Montgomery County.

This was the tenor of an appeal to President Eisenhower from a weekly newspaper published in the Maryland countryside through which the Chief Executive travels every time he makes the 8-mile drive between the White House and his farm at Gettysburg, Pa.

The Montgomery County Sentinel printed "an open letter to Ike" respectfully suggesting that keeping the presidential car five miles below the speed limit "not only would increase your chances of safety on our open roads but that of everyone else as well."

The Sentinel argued that holding down the lead car's speed would enable the rest of the President's motorcade to catch up between turns, traffic lights and stop signs—and still stay within the speed limits.

The newspaper told the resident, "The five minutes you would lose while going through our county, we are sure, would not greatly hamper your schedule."

The open letter to the President was accompanied by a cartoon showing a rooster, hen and chicks by a roadside. The rooster was warning, "Don't you chicks cross the road—Ike's party will be along any minute!"

Construction Workers End Their Strike

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—A strike of union construction workers in the Fort Smith area was settled today when conferees reached an agreement for an immediate 10 cent an hour wage increase and another similar increase next year.

The strike, which had been in effect since Jan. 1, involved between 600 and 800 workers.

The settlement was announced jointly by Lloyd Brammer, president of Local 107, International Hod Carriers, Building and Construction Laborers of America, and Edgar E. Bethell, attorney for the Fort Smith Contractors Association.

The immediate and prospective wage increases will be in effect "across the board."

Wage scales under a contract which expired Dec. 31 ranged from $1.60 to $2.25 cents an hour.

The new contract also calls for possible additional increases tied to rises in the cost of living in 1958.

MOORE POSTPONES BOAT

SÃO PAULO, Brazil (UP)—An attack of food poisoning has forced world lightweight champion Archie Moore of San Diego, Calif., to postpone until Jan. 27 his bout against Luis Ignacio de Brazil originally scheduled for Jan. 15.

Major Howard Is Enroute Home

LONDON (AP)—A 16-year-old announced tonight U. S. Maj. Howard Curran, forced down by Communist fighters just before Christmas, has been allowed to leave his T83 jet plane.

Tirana radio said no measures were taken against the Tacoma, Wash. flyer but denounced the flight as a flagrant violation of the state frontier and air space of the people's republic.

Navy Expert Not Consulted on Key Issues

By EDWIN B. HAKINSON

WASHINGTON (AP)—The first work on this country's pioneer nuclear submarine was done in an office converted from a ladies' powder room.

Rear Adm. Hyman G. Rickover, the Navy's top nuclear expert, group to illustrate the slight official support he said he got when he first proposed the nuclear job project.

The admiral testified Monday at a closed-door hearing of the Senate Preparedness subcommittee, which is investigating the nation's military readiness in the light of Russian scientific advances. Some of what Rickover said was disclosed at the time. More of his testimony was released today, presumably after security censorship.

Despite his experience in the nuclear field, Rickover said he has not been consulted about development of subs to launch ballistic missiles or about other advanced weapons.

Chairman Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) and Sen. Francis Case (R-SD) expressed shock at this and asked Rickover why. He replied that was something for others to answer and said, "I am not complaining."

Discussing the capability of nuclear submarines, Rickover said such craft had remained submerged as much as 15 days and that he knew no reason why they could not stay under water longer.

"The Navy is developing a machine to make oxygen from sea water which will permit them to stay submerged almost indefinitely," he said.

"I was kept on, and I was assigned the job all by myself, and given an office in an ex-ladies powder room."

Rickover said, "At that time nearly everybody knew it was going to fail so they let us alone completely, almost completely, so we were able to do the job."

Stock Market Declines Friday

NEW YORK (AP)—Steels, air-crafts and rails lost ground as the stock market declined in moderately active trading early this afternoon.

Key issues were off from fractions to a point or so.

It was a continuation of a downward move which followed President Eisenhower's State of the Union message yesterday. Market analysts felt the economic aspects of the speech had been well-discussed early in the week.

Army Paid $12 Million For Bad Grenades

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—The General Accounting Office says the Army has decided to destroy 12 million dollars worth of defective foreign-made grenades which GAO says the United States paid too much for in the first place.

The agency also reports that military sea transports are sailing with empty troop space because servicemen are being flown over seas.

The reports from the GAO watchdog over government spending, were submitted to Congress during the Congressional recess. They were made public after the new session began this week.

Involved in one report were high explosive antitank and practice rifle grenades ordered by the U. S. Army in Europe from a Belgian firm, S. A. Belge de Mecanique et d'Armement, and a Portuguese subsidiary. More than 45 million dollars worth of orders for the grenades were said to have been placed over a three-year period, starting during the Korean War.

The GAO said the Army received one report in 1954 that 32 per cent of some of the grenades tested were duds. A 1955 investigation, GAO said, found the grenades became so dangerous after drops during shipping that they might blow up in the course of normal handling.

The Army said it decided to destroy the defective grenades that year. By Jan. 1, 1957, it said some 885,000 of the grenades still on hand would be destroyed within 18 months.

GAO said Army purchasers considered the price too high, but went ahead with procurement on the basis of urgent need. The Belgian firm held patent rights on the grenades, which were said to have superior armor-penetrating capabilities compared with the then-standard U. S. model.

The Army finally agreed to a $120,248 refund offer from the Belgian company, GAO said. But the Army decided the grenades had been supplied according to contract specifications and that there were insufficient grounds for action against the company under contract provisions.

A Sept. 5 GAO report, following an audit of the Military Sea Transportation Service for fiscal 1954 and 1955, found "poor utilization of troop space on MSTB passenger vessels," although it said cabin space has been well utilized. It did not say who, if anyone, used the cabins besides troops.

One cause for empty troop space on the ships, GAO said, was heavy movement of troops by air.

The comptroller general suggested some troopships be inactivated because they have had to lie idle for long periods. But the Navy said it had to keep up mobilization requirements "in view of the unstable international situation."

Youth Beats Daughter of Benefactor

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP)—A 16-year-old court ward used a ball bat yesterday to bludgeon the 15-year-old daughter of a family that gave him a home. He said he and the pretty girl had argued about Elvis Presley. The girl, Carol Taylor, was in very critical condition at Sequoia Hospital.

The ward, Cordie Lee Pendleton, 16, bled through heavy rain in Hillcrest Juvenile Home, west of Belmont, and surrendered himself, mud-spattered and soaked.

He had left a note for Carol's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Taylor, at their ranch home, two miles west of here. "I'm sorry—bye for good."

Pendleton, one of four children from a broken home, was carrying a rifle when he turned himself over to the chief probation officer, John S. Cowgill, at the facility he had left a year ago.

"We fought all the time. This time it was about Elvis," Cordie related to reporters. He said the girl did not like the singer.

Carol's father is executive secretary of San Mateo County chapter of the American Red Cross.

Sheriff Earl B. Whitmore, holding the boy for investigation, quoted him as saying Carol "was always needing me" about being a foster child.

Daily Worker Editor to Quit Communists

NEW YORK (AP)—Editor John Gates of the Daily Worker, Communist party organ which is suspending publication next Monday, has decided to quit the Communist party, the New York Post reported today.

The Post said Gates would hold a news conference to announce his decision to resign from the party and explain the reasons.

Gates' group has wanted American Communists to take an "independent" position while the others called for reaffirmation of loyalty to Moscow.

The differences were brought to a head when the Foster faction, dominant in American party affairs, moved to shut down the party's daily newspaper—a publication plagued for years by financial troubles.

Probers Are Admonished by Vinson

By EDMOND LEBRETON

WASHINGTON (AP)—House Armed Services committee, organizing for a sweeping investigation of the military establishment, were admonished today to avoid "seeking political advantage."

"Our problem demands an American solution, not a political solution," Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) said in a statement prepared for the closed-door session.

The committee members gathered to make final arrangements for what was expected to be the most exhaustive House inquiry in almost a decade into the U. S. military establishment. The first weaknesses will appear Monday, led by Secretary of Defense McElroy.

"The purpose of the hearing is to fully explore our military situation in its entirety and then promptly take such legislative action as may be required by the facts," Vinson said.

He said he is sure "all of us want to approach these problems without rancor, without recrimination and without seeking political advantage."

The chairman said the inquiry, which he indicated may last some time, will go into "the assignment of roles and missions and the organization and operation of the Joint Chiefs of Staff."

Vinson made no reference in his prepared statement to President Eisenhower's State of the Union message yesterday. Eisenhower, recognizing widespread public concern over Russian space age threats to national security, promised a concrete program of weapons speedup and "unified direction" of military planning and control.

New Orleans Group Trying to Stop Races

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Initial action began in civil district court today on the petition of nine property owners seeking a injunction to stop racing at the Fair Grounds.

The nine filed suit yesterday, claiming the track's operation violates state anti-gambling laws and constitutes a health nuisance.

The Fair Grounds, now in the midst of its 55th racing season has been located on its present site for the past 75 years.

The suit was directed against the state racing commission, whom the petitioners said acted without delegated legislative powers in authorizing pari-mutuel betting at the track, and the track's individual officers.

Revised state statutes allowing pari-mutuel gambling, the petition said, is unconstitutional.

Promises Not to Daily With Dahlias

BIRMINGHAM, England (AP)—William S. Goode promised publicly today to quit dallying with dahlias if his runaway wife will return to his bed and board.

Goode, a 51-year-old dahlia fancier who has won many prizes at flower shows, told the newspapers Mrs. Goode, 52, vanished Dec. 30, leaving a note which said: "Dahlias, dahlias, dahlias—I am fed up with them. Breakfast, supper and bedtime that is all I have had to eat."

"I am sure now," said Goode, "that my wife just got fed up to the back teeth with my dahlias. If she will come back, I will give them up. I realize now that my wife is more important than dahlias."

Mrs. Goode's name, incidentally, is Daisy.

February Draft Quota 184 Men

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The February draft quota for Arkansas is 184 men, state Selective Service headquarters announced today.

Col. Fred M. Groom, state Selective Service Director, said the Arkansas quota is 142 for January and was 144 in February 1957.

Congressmen to Speak for Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two congressmen are setting out on a nationwide mission to build up backing for an increase in the stakes of America's foreign aid program.

Rep. Cavanaugh (D-Mo.) and Merrow (R-Md.) announced today they will make a bipartisan speaking tour over the next few weeks under the sponsorship of the American Assn. for the U. N., a private organization backing the United Nations. They plan to talk—and listen—to people around the country on U. S. foreign policy topics, especially foreign aid. "Then they say, they will make use of the results when President Eisenhower's foreign aid bill comes before the House Foreign Affairs Committee," Cavanaugh and Merrow are chairman and top GOP member of a subcommittee on international organizations. Last year they held where citizens spoke out on foreign policy topics.

The two legislators said about 80 per cent of those testifying favored foreign aid. But Congress chipped more than a billion dollars below the $3,000,000,000 Eisenhower sought for overseas assistance.

Eisenhower is asking for about the same amount this year. Cavanaugh said he thinks Congress ought to authorize even more, perhaps around $4,300,000,000.

Nobleman to Wed Actress Eva Bartok

LONDON (UP)—The blue-blooded Marquis of Milford Haven plans to marry Hungarian-born actress Eva Bartok and adopt her three-month-old mystery baby, the British press reported today.

The Marquis was not immediately available for comment on the reports which were carried in several British papers, but he is known to have long been her close friend.

Eva's baby was born after her divorce from German actor Karl Jurgens. She refused to name the father of the child, Donna Grazia, who has been in the care of her mother in suburban Kingston-upon-Thames.

The actress flew back to Britain Thursday from Munich where she has been making a film and rejoined the baby at the rented house where her mother lives. She refused to discuss the possibility of marriage but her friends said the couple planned to wed.

Milford Haven, 38, was best man at the wedding of Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip, but his name has been noticeably absent from the lists of those attending royal functions during the past year.

Arson Suspected in Six College Fires

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP)—Police said today they suspect arson as the cause of six separate fires which broke out yesterday in buildings of the University of North Carolina.

The worst fire started in Swain Hall, where communications center is located. Officials inventoried equipment today in an attempt to estimate damages to the studios of UNC-TV, located in the building.

Officers said a 4-year-old boy seen at two of the fires was picked up for questioning and released.

New Cold Wave Hits Lakes Area, South Warmer

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Warming temperatures thawed frostbitten areas of the Southeast today, but a fresh supply of Canadian air spilled across the Northern Great Lakes, bringing snow flurries and near zero mercury levels.

Considerable warming took place from Maine through Georgia, and early morning temperatures averaged nearly 20 degrees higher than a day earlier.

Although northern sections of Florida had temperatures in the 20s for the third night in a row, most readings in the state were above the freezing point and up to near 80 in the extreme south-east.

The U. S. Weather Bureau forecast continued warming in the Southeast during the day, and it said temperatures could be expected to return to more nearly normal levels by night.

Snow flurries were scattered from the Northern Great Lakes eastward across the Lower Great Lakes and into New York and northern Pennsylvania. However, accumulations were not significant.

Rains continued from Washington into the northern two-thirds of California with light and scattered precipitation extending eastward into the Northern and Central Rockies, where it became snow flurries.

Easing of the Southeastern cold snap came in the wake of U. S. Department of Agriculture estimates that 22 million boxes of Florida oranges were lost in the record December freeze. Observers have termed it one of Florida's worst winters since the 1890s.

More cooling was expected in the Great Lakes region today with indications it would extend into New York and most of Pennsylvania, making snow flurries fairly common in that area.

Partly cloudy skies were rather general across most of the country.

Farmers Union Enlists Aid of Truman

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Farmers Union has enlisted the aid of former President Harry S. Truman in its fight against Eisenhower administration farm policies.

"The former president will be the principal speaker at the farm organization's convention at Denver March 16-20."

While President Truman had close ties with the Farmers Union, he clashed often with the rival American Farm Bureau Federation on farm programs.

Charles F. Brannan, Truman's secretary of agriculture, is general counsel of the Farmers Union.

Brannan was the author of a controversial farm program which the Truman administration laid before Congress in 1949, but which was never accepted. Featuring a system of farm production payments, the plan still has support of the Farmers Union.

No Matter What, America Fashions Lead

By HUGH A. MULLIGAN

NEW YORK (AP)—Men, if the unpublished Gaiher Report has you worried about the shape of things to come, take heart in the findings of this top-secret Gaiher Sack Report.

No matter where America stands in the missile race, she is fashion front. Thanks to our in-making remarkable strides on the trepid designers and a shapeless mass called the chemise, American women will be just as well dressed as Russian women by the spring of 1960.

Fore and aft (and you'll have to look twice to tell which they'll have the tubby, tubular look of a Marmaske Mamma on her way to market in her greatcoat. No curves, no kinks; no wiggles, no jigglies. Just a bolt of cloth billowing in the breeze, or drooping in the doldrums, depending on wind conditions.

In closing the fashion gap, the bosom, derriere and other capitalistic tourist attractions have been relegated to the couture's Siberia. Everything, but everything, has been left to the imagination.

The girl of your dreams will be as sexy as a barbershop calendar—still wrapped in its cardboard mailing tube.

This in a nutshell—or rather in a silk sheathed rain barrel—is the gist of the Gaiher Sack Report now revealed for the first time.

By posing as a fashion writer (all it took was a Paisley print tie with matching pocket handkerchief of the sincerest hue), this reporter managed to smuggle the information out of the heavily guarded salon of a 5th Avenue hotel where the high priestesses of the garment trade had gathered for their annual spring rites. Otherwise known as fashion openings.

As ritual, these openings owe a great deal to an unfashionable gent named Jake Minsky. The trappings are virtually the same as in the early American art form the pioneer: a long wooden runway stretching clear into the bald-headed row, a round spotlight playing on a red velvet aisle and a pylon tinkling seductive airs.

Only when the curtain opened, instead of Rose La Rose or Lili St. Cyr in their native habiliments, out stepped a trio of bored-looking sirens in formless, knee-length pillow cases.

About this time Minsky would have been headed toward the fire exit with an angry mob at his heels, but the audience of fashion writers—all women except for the aforementioned spy—applauded smartly, white glove upon white glove, and buried themselves in their form sheets.

"This is the offbeat look, the sophisticated, understated silhouette," cooed a syrupy voice over the microphone. "Half witch and half wonder! The crepe chemise: casual, comfortable, oh so chic. Retail for $10. We call this the 'midweek weekend look' because it's so versatile."

The models mimicked their way one by one down the runway with the peculiar tummy-out and hips-in strut that the new look seemed to require, as if they had a strong wind at their backs and were about to run up a spinnaker.

Several writers actually broke for the telephones in the best traditions of the press. Others took notes furiously or babbled in a jargon rife with words like "oblong," "scalloped" and "aplique."

Up on the platform, sack after sack paraded before our eyes. There was the bloused chemise, coiffed droopily at the middle the way the general greengrocer used to look in the fold of a half empty grain sack.

There was the two piece suit chemise, roughly an Army field jacket over a Mother Hubbard.

And the "harem chemise," trussed up at the bottom so it literally became a cul-de-sac.

Finally, the "bare-top evening chemise," which provided the silhouette effect of a semi-naked girl peeping sheepishly out of an upright sewer pipe, which ended precisely 18 inches from the floor.

Across the table, a stout, gray-haired woman who might have shared a daisy chain with Whittier's mother in her Vassar days directed a question at me. "Do you think I could wear that length or would it tend to make me look old?"

Muttering something about an early deadline for my fashion furnished readers, I escaped with the Gaiher Sack Report safe in my pocket.

One major finding: not one of the intrepid fashion writers was intrepid enough to do the springtime sackcloth for the opening.

Kentucky May Cut State Income Tax

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—Gov. A. B. Chandler of Kentucky told the opening of the State Legislature that despite a record budget which he is asking for the next year, he wants the state's personal income tax cut.

The governor said his proposal would "enable everyone to have a share in the two-million-dollar tax cut made possible," he said.

Coats are both shorter and looser for spring. Even when they are belted, they take on loose lines which stand away from the body. Cherry red tweed (left) by Monte-Sano and Pruzan is a perfect example. It has low-placed patch pockets and one inverted back pleat. The loose coat with slightly wrapped look (right) is a pink-red fleece by Originals. It is buttonless, has a roll shawl collar. Both underline the importance of red as a basic spring color.

The American Figure Emerges Triumphant

By DOROTHY ROE

AP Women's Editor

The famous American figure will emerge triumphant even over the threat of the gunny sack silhouette, it became clear today to some 200 fashion editors attending final sessions of a crowded week of spring style previews.

Such designers as Oleg Cassini, Jo Copeland, Jane Derby, Tina Leser, Suzy Perette, and Andrew Arkin proved to the visiting press that even the sack dress can't keep a good designer down. They tackled the problem in various ways.

Cassini, who has declared open war on the gunny sack, clings to his oft-stated credo that "the only purpose of a dress is to heighten the sex appeal of the wearer."

Miss Copeland makes a bow to the chemise, but softens the blow by directing interest to neckline and hemline, advising the wearer to "forget the middle." Says she: "In the bright lexicon of American women, there is no such thing as the gunny sack."

When she shows chemise dresses, they are subtly shaped, and are likely to have a dramatic collar or a pleated flounce at the hemline. She uses midgy collars with telling effect, employs dramatic white accents on dark suits and dresses, shows suits with both boxy and fitted jackets, the former with brass buttons and midgy collars.

Miss Copeland, generally credited as the originator of the cock-tail suit, likes black and white for informal evenings—black taffeta with white lace, black chiffon over white, black organza with white faille bands.

Arkin, who startled buyers earlier in the season by opening his show with models wearing paper sacks, shows the chemise in assorted versions, but always smoothly fitted at shoulder, bust and hipline. Newest in his spring collection are bloused-jacket suits, which look strictly 1958, but are highly flattering.

Bill Lundigan Will Return to Acting

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—After four years as a car salesman, William Lundigan is going back to acting.

Of course, Bill is not the ordinary kind of car salesman. He makes the pitch for Chrysler cars week on the Thursday night show Climax. He is also a high-powered traveling salesman, hustling 130,000 miles around the country each year to make friends for the company.

He gave up his role as seller for a brief period recently to go back to his old racket. He appeared as a wire service reporter with a star-filled cast in "No Time at All," a filmed show for Playhouse 90, to be shown Feb. 18.

How did it feel?

"Just great," he said. "I love new to do more outside jobs. My contract permits it but I just haven't had time. Even during this show, I did two Chicagoans and went to Miami for the auto show."

Bill did well as a leading man at Universal and 20th Fox but was dropped by the first two studios.

Dress-and-jacket take on a suit look for spring in petite styling. Dress is a slim sheath with scoop neck; jacket has detailing at collar and waistline. This is a L'Aiglon design.

DOROTHY DIX

Saddle a Man With His Children and His Ehamored Will Fade Away

Dear Dorothy Dix: No marital problem is as tragic as that of a middle-aged husband who decides that his perfectly good wife is no longer his heart throb, and asks for a divorce so he can marry a ditzy blonde who has captured his fancy. Seldom has a wife any choice but to agree; he nobly gives her the children and promises support—which is rarely forthcoming. The wife and mother subsequently struggles on while the foot-loose husband has a good time.

A friend of mine was faced with this dilemma recently. She tried every wily tactic in the book to bring hubby back and finally hit the right one. She agreed to the divorce provided he took their three children. She said he was better able to support them than she was; they'd be better off continuing in their old home and having him who was taking her place would be delighted (?) she was sure, to have these adorable children. Needless to say, the erring husband was flabbergasted. His wife was violating all the sacred rules of motherhood. But was she? Since she was adamant in her decision, it didn't take him (or the chamber) long to decide he'd better stay put. This solution might work in other cases, so I'm passing it on to you. —Leona

Dear Leona: Your friend had an admirable mixture of courage, wisdom and cunning. No home wreckers want to be burdened with children, much less another woman's. She wants her security unquestioned, her time free, and a man with nothing else to do but cater to her whims. If she discovers that three children go along with the man and the security, she'll think twice about breaking up this home. Thanks for the letter and idea.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm a boy of 17. We recently moved to this town and I've grown very fond of a girl who lives up the block. I like very much to get acquainted with her. I know that her name is Vera, she's popular with boys and girls, is 15 years old, doesn't go steady, likes dances and enjoys sports. She goes to my school, and I've walked beside her but haven't the nerve to speak. —D. S.

Pearl D. S.: Whew! You sure know how to acquire information. The girl is undoubtedly aware of your interest in her, and probably thinks you're an awful dolt to be so slow about speaking to her. You've been given every opportunity.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm 22 and a college graduate. I never had much chance to meet girls, but last summer I made friends with a girl who is only 17 and a high school junior. She's lots of fun, but I can't see dating a girl five years younger than myself. Should I keep going with her or not? —Freddy

Dear Freddy: For a college graduate you don't make much sense. Five years is about the average distance between a man's age and that of the girl he dates. The question for consideration is whether or not you like her enough to continue going with her. I suspect you're looking for an out and a get-out.

Rev. W. R. Woodell
Rotary Club Speaker

John Thomas McRae had charge of the program at the Rotary Club Tuesday at the Broadway Hotel. He introduced Rev. W. R. Woodell pastor of the First Baptist Church as guest speaker. Mr. McRae emphasized the ability of Rev. Woodell to play football in days gone by as Mr. McRae had played on the opposing team against him. He stated he was as good a mini-ster now as he was a football player in the past.

Rev. Woodell spoke on Communism, its origin and its spread to the United States. He gave a brief history of the commonwealth college near Mena and its teaching and suppression by the state legislature. He gave statistics of the communist in the United States at the present time. He stated the teachings of communism was directly opposite to democracy and that the two cannot continue in a free world. His talk was interesting and was appreciated by all members present.

Tom Walker, Camden, and Robert C. Calderwood of Bloomington, Ill. were visiting Rotarians.

Prescott, District Nurses Meet
The regular meeting of the Prescott District Nurses Association was held on Tuesday evening at Buchanan Clinic.

Mrs. Max Kitchen introduced the guest speaker, Dr. J. G. Thomas who spoke on "Iatrogenic Diseases."

Members of the Prescott Practical Nurses Assn. were guests. A dessert course was served by the hostesses, Miss Fay Loomis and Miss Mary Poole.

Prescott Firemen Hold Monthly Meeting
Members of the Prescott Fire Department held their monthly meeting Tuesday night at the Davis Cafe. After lunch a social and fellowship meeting was held for a short time.

The meeting was called to order by Chief George (Shorty) Cunningham and the regular order of business taken up. Secretary, O. Dell Garrett reported four grass fires and a small residence burned during December. All the members were present including two honorary members. After completing the business at hand the meeting adjourned in regular order.

WMS Meets at Church
The WMS of the First Baptist Church met Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the church for a combined business and prayer service program. The meeting was opened with singing "Faith of Our Fathers."

Mrs. Harrell Hines had charge of the program on the topic "The Golden Door." Mrs. Roy Stainton and Mrs. A. R. Underwood gave the devotional. Others taking part were Mrs. L. L. Evans, Mrs. C. H. Tompkins, Miss Lillie Butcher, Mrs. Watson White Jr., Mrs. C. G. Johnson, Mrs. J. W. Grimes and Mrs. Wilburn Willis. Mrs. Hines closed the program with directed prayer.

Mrs. C. G. Johnson, president, conducted the business meeting which followed at which time committee reports were given.

Eighteen ladies enjoyed a spot lunch luncheon.

Mrs. D. S. Jordan, Mrs. C. A. Wynn, Mrs. Virginia Ann Kinney and Vicki spent Monday in Texarkana.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Mitchell an son have been the recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ezell.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Robey and Guss have returned from West Alexandria where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guss Ross.

Mr. and Mrs. George Howard Haynie and sons have returned from Joplin, Mo. where they visited relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Simpson have returned to Cincinnati, Ohio after a visit with their daughter, Mrs. J. R. Bemis and family.

Friends of Mrs. Carrie Maece will regret that she broke her foot in a fall on Monday.

Dinah Lists Health as Way to Success

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—"To be a success in show business," said Dinah Shore, "you don't have to be beautiful. You don't have to be smart—or talented. But you've sure got to be healthy."

At least once a year Miss Shore comes to New York to do a show or two. This season, happily, it will be two from New York via NBC-TV this Sunday and next, on NBC-TV evening her guests will be three Broadway stars: Art Carney, Julie Wilson and Anita Ekberg. A week from Sunday her guests will be Gail Patrick, Evelyn Richards, Andy Griffith and Greta Van Dam.

Whenever Miss Shore makes a pilgrimage to New York to make a pilgrimage to 123 Miss Shore, she is the president of the Dinah Shore Fan Club of Glen Ridge, N. J.

While drinking coffee we talked mostly about her husband, Lark Montemery, whom I haven't met, and my wife whom Miss Shore hasn't seen in how many years. She is a deep secret. They used to play together when they were

Dim Picture of Religion in Poland

By TOM HENSHAW
AP Writer

The Rev. Mogens Zeuthen, secretary for European minority churches of the Lutheran World Federation, has returned from Poland with a dim picture of church life in that Iron Curtain country.

The Rev. Mr. Zeuthen says the Evangelical Church of the Augsburg Confession (Lutheran) has lost some 80 per cent of its membership in less than 20 years. It was more than a million in 1939; it's about 200,000 now.

There are, he reports, 106 active Lutheran pastors in Poland, many of them serving three or four parishes. Most of them, he adds, have to assume outside jobs to supplement low incomes.

He attributes the loss in church membership to flight or expulsion from the country and resettlement of German-speaking Poles.

View, the Roman Catholic news commentary in a 2 P.M. edition of the Polish daily, "Prasa," named European Judge Ronald Davies of Grand Forks, N. D., as its Man of the Year for 1957.

Davies, temporarily assigned to the Eastern District of the U. S. Court of Arkansas, was the jurist called on to hear the explosive case of desegregation of Little Rock's Central High School.

The magazine said it chose Judge Davies "for his performance of a most difficult duty in time of crisis, his ruling which made integration, a fact rather than a theory, and his personal conduct."

The Rev. A. E. Bastable, pastor of the Lower Circular Road Baptist Church in Calcutta, India, has an explanation why visiting Christians may have difficulty recognizing their native co-religionists. It's the influence of Hinduism.

"The Hindus regard all religions as being equal," he told an interviewer recently. "There is truth, they say, in all religions, and if they are all put together there's a greater possibility of arriving at the truth than if only one religion is followed."

"This attitude affects the Christian church and quite frequently, one finds Christians who are without clear-cut convictions."

Somebody Steal a Railway Engine

OGDEN, Utah (AP)—Somebody stole a diesel switch engine last night from the Union Pacific Railroad yards. It was found abandoned half an hour later—near the mouth of Weber Canyon, east of here.

When yard crews saw the engine rolling onto the eastbound mainline tracks, they called police and ordered a westbound freight train halted at Morgan.

very young in Nashville, Tenn. Miss Shore went on to a strenuous career in show business. Mrs. Mercer went on to a strenuous career of getting me to the office on time.

Miss Shore's three-hour-length shows every four weeks make for a strenuous career indeed. Her shows this season speak and sing—for themselves, and she doesn't need to say a word about them. They're tops in variety entertainment—and that's speaking as an objective so-called critic rather than as a subjective Dinah Shore fan.

The grind has left no visible marks on Miss Shore. She looks grand and still has the bounce of a new tennis ball. How does she do it? Does she diet or sleep 10 hours a night or what?

"Sometimes I cut down a little on food," she said, plunging a fork into a couple of eggs fried in butter after having slept six hours. "My regular weight is 128 and it's quite easy for me to stay there. Last summer we went abroad and for a while and dropped right back home. When we came back home I took it easy on food for a while and dropped right back to 128."

HOLLYWOOD'S GO-MAN — After 10 years in Hollywood, workaholic Jerry Lewis is still one of the busiest guys in town. He's producing his own movies, writing TV routines and acting. He'll play a month or so in night clubs, then take off to Europe followed by more TV shows and movies plus production and direction of a new TV series. Here he takes a brief moment out to pose with three two-month-old babies who are with him in Paramount's "Rock-a-Bye Baby."

DECLINES HONOR—Soviet Scientist Anntoll A. Blagoravov, pictured above as he drew a rough sketch of Sputnik I shortly after Russia's first earth satellite was launched last October, was elected "Man of the Year" by the Copenhagen, Denmark, newspaper readers, but declined the honor. In a letter to a Copenhagen newspaper editor, Blagoravov denied that he was responsible for the Sputniks, attributing the honor to "the scientists and engineers of the U.S.S.R."

Trusted products are sound investments

The brand names you have selected are sound investments because you know these products measure up to a specified standard of performance and are of known quality of construction and materials.

In advertising, the Audit Bureau of Circulations* provides a trusted standard of value for newspaper circulation. This newspaper holds membership in A.B.C. so you may have the FACTS about the circulation of your sales messages when you advertise with us.

With this assurance, you can be confident that placing your sales message in the advertising columns of our paper is a sound business investment.

Ask us for a copy of our latest A.B.C. report.

*This newspaper is a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations, a representative nonprofit organization of publishers, advertisers, and advertising agencies. Our circulation is audited by experienced A.B.C. circulation auditors. Our A.B.C. report shows how much circulation we have, where it goes, how fast, and what kinds of readers we have. We'll tell you how to get the most money out of your ad.

SOLUNAR TABLES
By John Alden Knight

The schedule of Solunar Periods, as printed below, has been taken from John Alden Knight's Solunar Tables. Plan your days so that you will be fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these times. If you wish to find the best sport that each day has to offer.

The Major Periods are shown in boldface type. These begin at the times shown and last for an hour and a half or two hours thereafter.
The Minor Periods, shown in regular type, are of somewhat shorter duration.

Duck Hunt Costly to Army Official

BALTIMORE (AP) — Duck hunting over a baited area cost Lt.
Gen. Edward T. Williams, deputy commander of the Continental Army Command at Ft. Monroe,
Va. $25 yesterday.

It was the same fine paid earlier by his hunting companion, Maj.
Gen. Rinaldo Van Brunt, chief of staff of the 2nd Army at Ft.
Meade, Md.

Williams didn't appear to answer the charge of hunting over an area in Kent County baited with corn. His attorney entered a plea of no defense.

Michael's Receives
Rockne Grid Award

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Lou
Michael, University of Kentucky tackle who will receive the Knute Rockne award from the Washington Touchdown Club tomorrow, may have a record on pre-game lectures from referees.

Opposing coaches invariably ask game officials to keep a close watch on the powerful All-American tackle, and the referees subsequently cautioned him on use of his arms and legs.

Lou grew tired of the routine, and as the season wore on he finally asked one official almost tearfully:

"Mr. Referee, please sir, why don't you let me play the game like the other boys do?"

Snowstorm Halts
Search for Girl

INTERNATIONAL FALLS,
Minn. (AP) — A driving snow storm brought a halt to the search for missing 5-year-old Dannie Lamson shortly before midnight last night.

Sheriff Ed Anderson said resumption of the hunt today would depend upon severity of the storm sweeping this Canadian border country.

Anderson said he "simply could not understand" why no trace of the child was turned up by some 2,000 volunteers in the shoulder-to-shoulder search of a 10-mile square area around the Lamson home, a mile south of the city.

The child disappeared Wednesday morning. His father, Lawrence Lamson, hadn't been to bed since then until the search was officially called off. Lamson is a worker at a local paper mill.

Mrs. Lamson was under sedation after collapsing yesterday. The couple has two other children, Allen, 3, and 18-month-old Carol Ann.

Donation Brought
Loss of Speech

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Shop
owner Louis Prow said he "lost his speech" when an unidentified man walked into his store and stuffed $20 into a March of Dimes container.

Prow said the anonymous contributor told him he had read about such a container being sold on Tuesday, and stuffed the money inside the new container.

What Price Biologists?
The Sports Fishing Institute of Washington, D.C., uses as its moto, the phrase, "To Shorten the Time Between Bites." Its staff comprises a group of able men and the sole aim of the institute, the purpose for which it was formulated, is to further the best interests of sport fishing.

Of course, we know that the salaries of school teachers, policemen, game wardens, etc., are woefully low. Most of us, however, don't give a thought to the pay check of the average biologist whose job it is to see to it that the hunters and fishermen of the nation, and good fishing or good shooting when we can take time off to go afish.

The institute knows that there are about two score key jobs presently available to experienced biologists in the Conservation Commissions of the nation, so they,
the men on the institute staff, decided to investigate the situation.
The pay conditions that they turned up deserve consideration.

Salary figures for 22 fishing biologists who are employed on federally-aided state fish restoration projects, financed under the Dingell-Johnson Act, were compiled by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service for the past year.
The national average proved to be $4,943 for 1937.

Now it must be remembered that these biologists are highly trained men. Not only do they hold university degrees, the great majority have master's degrees while not a few have advanced their education to the stage of Ph. D. These degrees are not easily come by and require many years of technical training and work while resident at the universities of their choosing.

In order to evaluate anything, it is necessary to have a measurement of value. A yardstick. Thus,

THE VERDICT

Have you been in court? Have you witnessed a man on trial for his life? That is a serious thing. Yet, every one of us is in that category... on trial before God every day, every hour. Brilliant attorneys may hang earthly juries and sway human judges but brother, it won't be that way with God. His is really the "court of last resort." There we shall stand naked before Him. He alone will decide our case and pronounce, with poise, the verdict. That, too, is serious. But we have had ample opportunity and have been warned many times. The church steeple on the corner points the way and His word on the pulpit tells us how to get there. When we come before His court, and we shall, the book will be opened... our eternal destiny known... and He will read the verdict.
